

UPDATE – April 24, 2009

- There has been no movement on any legislation regarding PACT this week. SB581 has made the most progress and is available for final passage by the Senate. It would then travel to the House. The session ends May 18, 2009.
- The last of the Spring school invoices are being paid.
- Normal filings are being made on the two lawsuits. There is no news to report on these.
